INTRODUCTION
AND
GENERAL INDEX

HILL DIRECTORY CO., Inc., publishers of Southeastern Directories (publishers of the Winston-Salem City Directory since 1932), present to subscribers and the general public this, the 1954 edition of the Winston-Salem City Directory, which also includes City View, Hanes, Montview and Park Terrace. Winston-Salem's steady, consistent growth has reached the point where, with this edition, it has been necessary to change the style of the Directory to the metropolitan type, which will greatly facilitate reference use.

Confidence in the continued growth of Winston-Salem's industry, population and wealth, and in the advancement of its civic and social activities, will be maintained as sections of this Directory are consulted, for the Directory is a mirror truly reflecting Winston-Salem to the world.

The enviable position occupied by HILL'S Directories in the estimation of the public, has been established by rendering the best in Directory service. With an unrivaled organization, and having had the courteous and hearty cooperation of the business and professional men and residents, the publishers feel that the result of their labors will meet with the approval of every user, and that the Winston-Salem Directory will fulfill its mission as a source of authentic information pertaining to the community.

Five Major Departments
(Each department beginning with Page 1)

The five major departments are arranged in the following order:—

I. THE ALPHABETICAL LIST OF NAMES of residents and business and professional concerns is the first major department, printed on white paper. This is the only record in existence that aims to show the name, marital status, occupation and address of each adult resident of Winston-Salem and vicinity, and the name, official personnel, nature and address of each firm and corporation.

II. THE BUYERS' GUIDE, the second major department, printed on goldenrod paper, contains the advertisements of leading manufacturing, business and professional interests of Winston-Salem. The advertisements are indexed under headings descriptive of the business represented. This is reference advertising at its best, and merits a survey by all buyers eager to familiarize themselves with sources of supply. In a large commercial and industrial center like Winston-Salem, the necessity of having this kind of information immediately available, is obvious. General appreciation of this fact is evidenced by the many reference users of this City Directory service.

III. THE CLASSIFIED BUSINESS DIRECTORY is the third major department, printed on yellow paper. This department lists the names of all business and professional concerns in alphabetical order under appropriate headings. This feature constitutes an invaluable and indispensable catalog of the numerous interests of the community. The Directory is the common intermediary between buyer and seller. As such it plays an important part in the daily activities of the commercial and professional world. More buyers and sellers meet through the Classified Business Directory than through any other medium.

IV. THE DIRECTORY OF HOUSEHOLDERS, INCLUDING STREET AND AVENUE GUIDE, on pink paper, is the fourth major department. In this section the numbered streets are arranged in numerical order, followed by the named streets in alphabetical order; the numbers of the residences and business concerns are arranged in numerical order under the name of each street, and the names of the householders and concerns are placed opposite the numbers. The names of the intersecting streets appear at their respective crossing points on each street. Special features of this section are the designation of tenant-owned homes and the listing of telephone numbers.

V. THE NUMERICAL TELEPHONE DIRECTORY, on blue paper, is the fifth major department.

Community Publicity

The Directory reflects the achievements and ambitions of the community, depicting in unbiased terms what it has to offer as a place of residence, as a business location, as a manufacturing site and as an educational center. To broadcast this information, the publishers have placed copies of this issue of the Directory in Directory Libraries, where they are readily available for free public reference, and serve as perpetual and reliable advertisements of Winston-Salem and vicinity.

The Winston-Salem Directory Library

Through the courtesy of the publishers of the Winston-Salem City Directory, a Directory Library is maintained in the offices of the Winston-Salem Chamber of Commerce for free reference by the general public. This is one of more than 600 Directory Libraries installed in the chief cities of the U.S. and Canada by members of the Association of North American Directory Publishers, under whose supervision the system is operated.

7?/86/

The publishers appreciatively acknowledge the recognition by those progressive business and professional men who have demonstrated their confidence in the City Directory as an advertising medium, with assurance that it will bring a commensurate return.

WINSTON-SALEM

CITY OF HISTORIC CHARM AND THRIVING INDUSTRY;
THE WORLD'S TOBACCO CENTER

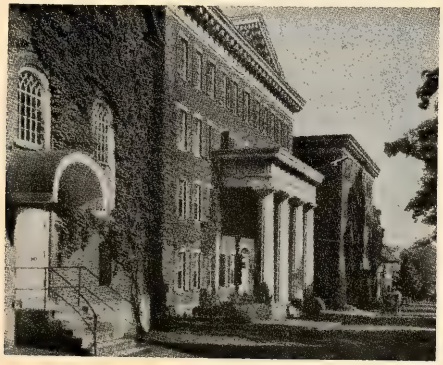
HISTORY

Rich and varied is the history of Winston-Salem, for the city of today is the product of two centuries of constructive, planned growth.

In 1752-53 a small group of Pennsylvania Moravians, a Protestant denomination of Bohemian origin, carefully selected and bought a large tract of land in Piedmont Carolina at the three forks of the Yadkin River. They named the tract "Wachovia" after the Austrian estates of Count Nicholas Louis von Zinzendorf, an early protector-patron of the sect. Two settlements were established, Bethabara in 1754 and Bethania in 1759. In 1766 a new settlement was carefully laid out in the center of the Wachovian tract and built according to definite plans. The tranquility-loving Moravians named their new town Salem, meaning "peace."



The small town grew rapidly under the care of the industrious fathers. A water system was established and dwellings, stores, and shops built. Embryonic industries included weaving, tanning, dyeing, baking, and the making of roofing tiles, ornamental tile stoves, clay smoking pipes, and candles. Tobacco was even then an important crop. The fathers consecrated a graveyard, "God's Acre," and founded a girls' school which has developed into the Salem Academy and College of today.

The Revolutionary War brought to the thriving town Nathanael Greene's soldiers, and in 1781 Cornwallis passed through Salem. The years after the war until the middle of the 19th Century were marked by such events as the establishment of the Nissen Wagon Co. in 1787; a visit from George Washington in 1791; the dedication of the Home Moravian Church in 1800; the first edition of Blum's Almanac in 1828; and the opening of the first bank in 1847. Cotton and wool manufacturing companies had been organized, and Salem by 1850 was a prosperous center of religion, learning and industry.

By an act of legislature in 1849, Forsyth County was created from Stokes County. The county seat was established one mile north of Salem Square. In 1851, again by act of legislature, the new county seat was named "Winston" in honor of Major Joseph Winston, Revolutionary War hero. Salem was incorporated in 1856; Winston in 1859.

Winston developed rapidly as an industrial center and market. The year 1872 saw the first tobacco auction and the opening of the first tobacco factory. In 1885 the Chamber of Commerce of Winston and Salem was organized by far-sighted leaders who realized that together the two towns must build for the future. By the time of consolidation, Winston was already known for its textiles, hosiery, blankets, knit goods, tobacco products, and tobacco market.

In 1913, by popular vote, Winston and Salem were consolidated as Winston-Salem, the "Twin City."

The new city took as its motto "Urbs Condita Adiuvando," meaning "A City Founded Upon Co-operation." This motto puts into modern phraseology the old Moravian concept of "Unitas Fratrum," "A Unity of Brethren."

Winston-Salem today is the leading industrial city of North Carolina and one of the South's leading industrial cities. The annual value of Forsyth County's manufactured products is over $1,000,000,000. The best of the old and the best of the new blend to make a progressive city still marked by a deep religious atmosphere, a love for music and arts, and a zeal for broad educational development. As did their fathers of yesterday, far-sighted citizens of today build always for the greater city of tomorrow.

POINTS OF INTEREST

Old Salem
Now Being Restored

(Arrangements for seeing available buildings and village may be made at Old Salem Restoration Headquarters.)

Old Salem, Inc., 614 S. Main St., headquarters for the restoration of the quaint Moravian village, founded in 1766. Here may be seen a scale model of the village as it looked in the early days, and current exhibits.

Wachovia Museum, corner S. Main and Academy Streets, where may be seen the large collection of Salem antiquities, and objects belonging to early Winston. A part of the collection is housed in the old Boys' School, built in 1794. Boys' School is still under its original tile roof.

Reynolds Memorial Auditorium

Salem Tavern, 800 S. Main, erected in 1784, was first brick building in Salem. George Washington visited the Tavern in 1791 during his Southern Tour.

Lick-Boner Block House, 512 S. Liberty St., 1787, is first house to be restored by Old Salem, Inc. One room is set up as a memorial to John Henry Boner, the North Carolina poet, who was born in the house in 1845.

Home Moravian Church, S. Church St., erected in 1800, is the heart of the early Salem community, and is the center of the Moravian Church activities in the South. It is here that the opening scene of the Moravian early Easter morning service is held. This Easter Service, one of the most widely known religious services in America, has been held for over 150 years, and attracts around 45,000 visitors annually.

God's Acre, or Moravian Graveyard, S. Church St., contains more than 3,000 graves, all having similar, flat markers to symbolize the brotherhood and equality of man. There are no family plots. The graveyard has been used by Moravian congregations in the city since 1771, and is the closing scene of the Moravian Easter Service.

Brothers' House, 600-04 South Main St., 1769 and 1786, is the second oldest house still standing in Salem. It was here that the young boys of the community went to learn their trades. Building is now the Moravian Church Home.

Sisters' House, Salem Square, 1786, housed the single sisters of early Salem. House is now used as a dormitory for Salem College.

John Vogler House, 700 S. Main Street. House built in 1819 by a silversmith and clockmaker, is a refinement of the traditional architecture of 18th Century mid-European domestic architecture which was used in early Salem. House is being made into a House Museum as a part of the restoration program.

Fourth House, 450 S. Main St., erected in 1767, is the oldest building still standing in Salem. Was home of an early saddlemaker. The house was restored in 1940 by the Forsyth County Committee of Colonial Dames, and is now rented.

Belo House, 455 S. Main Street. Handsome antebellum mansion with Corinthian columns and elaborate iron grille, was erected by Edward Belo in 1849. Belo conducted a store on the main floor of the building, and his dwelling was on the second story. Building was at one time used as an Inn. Now belongs to Moravian Church and is an apartment house for ladies.

Salem College, Salem Square, is one of the first Girls' Schools in the South, and is oldest in continuous operation. Established by the Moravians as a day school in 1772, it became a boarding school in 1802. The college buildings on a 50-acre campus, are designed in the characteristic mid-European domestic architecture, prevalent in Salem.

In the Downtown District

City Hall, N. Main St., is built on the original dividing line between Winston and Salem.
Forsyth County Court House is on the Court House Square in the center of the downtown district.

Reynolds Office Building, N. Main at 4th St., is North Carolina's tallest building.

The R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co., in the vicinity of Church and 5th streets, is open to visitors for guided tours. Here one may see Camel cigarettes and Prince Albert smoking tobacco being produced; both products are made only in Winston-Salem. Information about the guided tours may be obtained at the Reynolds Office Building.

The tobacco warehouses, in the vicinity north of the Post Office between Oak and Patterson streets, are open from late September through January. Here the chant of the auctioneer, the pungent smell of ripe tobacco, and the steady hum of warehouse activity combine to provide one of America's most colorful marketing scenes.

P. H. Hanes Knitting Co., N. Main St., is the world's largest plant for the manufacture of knit underwear.

Over the City

Bowman Gray Memorial Stadium, Stadium Drive, is the scene of many athletic events.

Smith Reynolds Airport, North Liberty Extension, is one of the South's finest air terminals.

Bowman Gray School of Medicine of Wake Forest College and the North Carolina Baptist Hospital are on S. Hawthorne and Everett streets.

Hanes Hosiery Mills Co., W. 14th St., is the world's largest manufacturer of circular-knit hosiery.

Radio Shops of Western Electric Co., main offices, are on Chatham Road.

Reynolda Village and Reynolda Estate are on beautiful Reynolda Road (U.S. 421). In this area will be the new plant of Wake Forest College.

The Forsyth County Fair Grounds are on 30th St.

In the Buena Vista residential area are many lovely homes.

Reynolds Auditorium and High School are on N. Hawthorne Road.

William and Kate B. Reynolds Memorial Park is being developed on the estate of the late Will Reynolds, located twelve miles west of the city of U.S. 158. Planned to be one of the finest public parks in the South, it will open in early summer, 1954.

INDUSTRY AND BUSINESS

Winston-Salem is built on a sound economic foundation. Industries, many of which were established by Winston-Salem pioneers, number over 300. Industrial and agricultural developments are interdependent, giving stability and balanced growth.

Industrial Development

Tobacco—Tobacco flows into Winston-Salem from the farms of the entire Piedmont area. Here it is manufactured into tobacco products which are distributed to every country in the world. Winston-Salem is the world's largest tobacco manufacturing center, producing cigarettes, smoking and chewing tobacco, and snuff. Winston-Salem also is one of the world's largest bright-leaf tobacco markets.

Hosiery—The city is the home of the world's largest circular-knit hosiery mill. Besides this great mill and a large plant processing nylon yarn, there are seven other plants in the Winston-Salem vicinity that process or make hosiery.

Wiley Elementary School, One of the Many Beautiful Public Schools in the City.

Knit underwear—The largest manufacturer of knit underwear in the world is located in Winston-Salem.

Radios, radar, and other electronic equipment—A large electric company in several plants in Winston-Salem manufactures radar for the government, radios, test equipment, and other electronic devices and components.

Furniture--Seventeen furniture plants, manufacturing all types of furniture, are located in the Winston-Salem vicinity.

Others—The city has other plants manufacturing a large variety of products including boxes and cartons, batteries, air-conditioning and industrial machinery, specialized chemical materials and medicines, awnings, bedding and mattresses, swimming suits, paint, toys, wagons and textiles. An ample complement of services joins these industries to give a well-balanced and diversified economy.

Retail and Wholesale Trade

The retail trading area covers several Piedmont counties and has a population of over 550,000. The wholesale trading area extends over a 150-mile radius embracing a population of 4,724,424. The effective buying income per family in Winston-Salem (1952) was $4,548; the average of the South Atlantic States was $4,234, and that of the U.S., $4,929.

Transportation

Aviation—Located 2.5 miles from the business district, Smith Reynolds Airport, one of the nation's newest and finest, has Class 5 airport facilities, regular service by large air lines.

Motor Vehicles—Automobiles registered for 1953 in the Winston-Salem area were 49,821; trucks, 9,450. Four coach companies give inter-city bus service; Winston-Salem is the Southern division headquarters for the Greyhound Lines. Four local bus lines and five taxicab companies handle urban traffic.

Highways—Eleven principal highways lead to and from Winston-Salem; the city is served by more hard-surfaced roads than any other city or center in North Carolina.

Railways—Three railways operate in Winston-Salem. The city generates such a great amount of freight that 33 "off-line" railways maintain Winston-Salem offices.

Banking Institutions

Four banking institutions include three commercial banks and one industrial bank. One of the commercial banks serves as home office of the largest bank between Washington and Atlanta. On Dec. 31, 1953, bank deposits totaled $365,644,350.13; bank resources, $398,999,897.58; bank clearings, $1,-905,371,000.

General Business Facts

Building permits in 1953 totaled $9,083,672; postal receipts in 1953, $1,335,384.16. Domestic electricity is supplied adequately for present and future needs.

COMMUNITY LIFE

Winston-Salem was built by a home-loving, civic-minded people. Thus, through the years, great institutions have grown steadily, adding their influence and stability to the making of a wholesome, well-rounded community life. Winston-Salem is known for its many churches, good schools, and beautiful homes.

Churches and Religious Denominations

Often called the city of churches, Winston-Salem has 179 churches representing some twenty denominations. Every section of the city is graced with lovely church buildings in attractive grounds, ranging from the old Home Moravian Church to the large, modern Baptist and Methodist structures called the finest in the South.

Churches numbered according to denomination include Adventist 2; Assembly of God 1; Baptist 61; Catholic 2; Christian 3; Christian Missionary and Alliance 1; Christian Science 1; Church of Christ 8; Congregational 2; Episcopal 3; Friends 2; Greek Orthodox 1; Holiness 34; Jehovah's Witnesses 3; Jewish 2; Lutheran 3; Methodist 21; Moravian 14; Presbyterian 8; Reformed 2; and others 5.

Schools and Colleges

Also called the city of good schools, Winston-Salem long ago recognized the need for adequate education. Today eighteen public elementary and four public high schools serve the city. The buildings are attractive, well-equipped, and set in spacious grounds providing adequate facilities.

Salem Academy is a day and boarding school for girls. There are two business colleges, one private elementary school, two parochial schools, and kindergartens, music schools, and trade schools.

Three colleges located in the city are Salem College, one of the nation's oldest leading four-year colleges for women, founded in 1772; Bowman Gray School of Medicine of Wake Forest College, four-year medical schools; Winston-Salem Teachers College, co-education Negro institution; and two Bible colleges.

Wake Forest College, a 116-year old, four-year college for men and women, is being moved to Winston-Salem. The college will be located in a new, modern plant housing 2,000 students.

City Government

Winston-Salem has the council-manager type of city government. The city is incorporated, operating at present upon a charter codified and revised in 1927, with amendments made since. The city is divided into eight wards, with one alderman being elected biennially from each ward, making the governing body of the city a board of aldermen of eight plus the mayor. The Board of Aldermen appoints the city manager.

County Government

Five commissioners, elected for two-year terms, make up a board of commissioners who serve as the governing body of the Forsyth County government.

The county is divided into twelve townships and 32 precincts. All qualified electors of North Carolina who have lived in North Carolina for one year and in any voting precinct of Forsyth County for four months are eligible to vote in county elections.

Hospitals and Medical Facilities

Three first-class hospitals, City Memorial, Kate Bitting Reynolds Memorial, and North Carolina Baptist, have a total of 703 beds. The Forsyth County Tuberculosis Sanatorium is located nearby. There are three convalescent homes in the city, the City-County Health Clinic, and the full-time City and County Health Department with splendid records in disease-prevention.

Recreational Facilities

Twenty-six parks and playgrounds, with a total of 536 acres, have athletic fields, picnic areas, and special amusement features. The largest park is Reynolds, one of the South's finest municipal recreational centers. The city has an average of more than ten acres of playground for each public school.

Numerous amateur and "semi-pro" baseball, basketball and softball teams have regular schedules of games. Four eighteen-hole golf courses and a mild climate make golf a year-around sport. Nine swimming pools and seven motion-picture theatres are located in the city. The R. J. Reynolds Memorial Auditorium and the Bowman Gray Stadium are available for special events. The Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. provide recreational programs and the City Recreation Department conducts extensive supervised activities.

The $1,250,000 Memorial Coliseum, soon to be erected, will seat 7,850 and will bring many unusual attractions to the city. The Coliseum will accommodate ice sports, large agricultural shows, and great conventions. Funds have already been raised to build the Coliseum.

Winston-Salem is a gateway to both mountain and seashore resorts. Some of the loveliest Carolina beaches lie 225 to 250 miles east and south, while cool mountain retreats are about sixty miles west. The famed Blue Ridge Parkway, leading to Shenandoah National Park and Great Smoky Mountains National Park, is some sixty miles northwest.

Cultural Opportunities

An annual concert series is under the auspices of the Civic Music Association. Lectures at Salem College are open to the public. A Little Theatre and numerous book, music and garden clubs function actively. Arts activities are co-ordinated under the Arts Council, with headquarters at 822 W. 5th St.

Salem College Library has 42,000 volumes, and the Public Library of Winston-Salem and Forsyth County has 47,033, with a branch library containing 12,479.

Location

On the Piedmont Plateau in northwestern North Carolina, 45 miles south of the Virginia state line and approximately fifty miles east of the main Blue Ridge Mountains, Winston-Salem is situated almost exactly midway between Washington and Atlanta. Suited to a wide variety of farm products, the Piedmont region is an outstanding agricultural section as well as one of America's leading tobacco and textile manufacturing areas. Within a 120-mile radius of Winston-Salem are located the majority of the state's colleges and universities. The state capital, Raleigh, is 110 miles east. Winston-Salem is 540 miles by rail from New York and 312 miles from Washington.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

THE WINSTON-SALEM CHAMBER OF COMMERCE is located in spacious headquarters at 106 N. Cherry St. Besides providing very comfortable office space, the quarters also have a large board room, a conference room, a kitchen, a large reception hall, and a well-appointed ladies' lounge. This home also houses the offices for the Winston-Salem Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Dairy Council. The offices are decorated throughout with a grey and blue color scheme. In the large conference room many civic clubs and organizations hold meetings.
